

MyZuzah Moments - April 27, 2023

Last Sunday, we co-hosted an event for children and their families at the Pozez JCC in northern Virginia, with attendees ranging from 5 months to 7 years old (plus parents).

Immediately after, one family shared pictures of their whole home bedecked with their new custom mezuzah cases:

Our team sent ten more mezuzahs klafim to Moishe House, for inclusion in their “start up” kits for new houses. We are looking forward to a great program with them in early May, at their next retreat for residents and Moishe House community members. We are anticipating 40+ mezuzah cases to be made and sent home with participants, along with lots of inspiration for their own mezuzah-related programs.

Partner Updates:

In Antalya, Turkey, Rabbi Shlomi Stifel is supporting thousands of Russians who have left their country since early last year. Click here to see a video of him putting up the first mezuzah!

At SUNY Buffalo, in Upstate New York, two students received mezuzahs courtesy of their local Chabad:

Individual Stories:

In West Columbia, SC, Dill Brice and her partner experienced significant discrimination not only for being Jewish, but for also being queer and trans. Their previous homeowners association repeatedly refused to allow them to put up a mezuzah, so this was among the first things they did upon moving into a new place:
