

MyZuzah Moments - August 30, 2024

As MyZuzah has added more and more features and resources to our program, we are launching a new series of MyZuzah Moments, targeted at our distribution partners, to keep them in the loop about all the things we offer. This bi-weekly newsletter will also promote individual partner programs, to drive some competition and inspiration across our community of 400+ involved organizations!

Partner Updates:

Our second partner in Buenos Aires, Argentina, is Aish– they recently kicked off their own mezuzah campaign and shared some great pictures, including one of three generations together:

The team at 18Doors is engaging more and more Jews, now beyond those in interfaith relationships. These individuals from San Jose, CA, and Chicago, IL, turned to 18Doors for guidance in unlocking more about their own Jewish identities

Recipient Pictures and Stories:

Yona Lancry, Los Angeles, CA

Adam Mizrachi, Johns Creek, GA

Susan Schneider, Newport News, VA

What a great idea, and what a great mitzvah! I feel not only like I have completed one of the mizhvot I am happy to show I am a Jew during these troubled times.
Farrell Goldman, White Plains, NY

This is amazing thank you so much for sending me this blessing!! Leah Kozakevich, Palo Alto, CA

