

MyZuzah Moments - February 3, 2023

This week, MyZuzah signed an MOU with the National Center to Encourage Judaism, a foundation that funds programs to support the welcoming of individuals to Judaism. Our grant will allow MyZuzah to support synagogues, JCCs, and other organizations who host conversion and “introduction to Judaism”-style courses by providing educational materials and mezuzahs as a tangible milestone to their participants. As a physical reminder of the personal and communal values of Judaism, we are excited to help our partner organizations warmly welcome Jews-by-choice to our family.

Our team was also busy this week planning programs with partners across the world! From the JCC in Riga, Latvia, to PJ Library/JCC groups in DC and Maryland, a hospital system in Baltimore, and the BBYO International Convention in Dallas, we’re going to be putting mezuzahs up in a lot of places! We also refreshed our database with plenty of partner check-ins, ensuring that our inventory numbers are accurate and allow us to send mezuzahs to where they are needed most.

Partner Updates:

Chabad of the Shore, in Long Branch, NJ, sent us pictures of their colorful community members receiving mezuzot last week:

The Jewish Discovery Center in Williamsville, NY, shared their mezuzahs with young professionals and college students in the area:

Individual Stories:

Ariel Roshan, a recent graduate of Boston University, received a mezuzah from BU Chabad for his first apartment in Baltimore!

The experience was perfect, and now my house feels like a home. I'm so grateful to be a Jew! Dr. Autumn Reed, Odenton, MD

*We loved the dedication! We heard about MyZuzah on reddit when we were trying to figure out where to get a mezuzah for our new home. We loved how easy it was and are so thankful! Alicia Eckman, Guilford, CT
