MyZuzah Moments - July 6, 2023

MyZuzah is proud to connect Jews of all hues, of all ages and backgrounds– many of whom are featured in this week's update. Read on!

Partner Updates:

In partnership with the team at Tikkun HaYam, we helped Camp Young Judaea Sprout Lake add new mezuzahs to their facilities. Their custom-3D printed mezuzah cases feature the Young Judaea lion, and MyZuzah's kosher, fair-trade mezuzah klafim:

Across the Atlantic, the Jewish Community of Offenbach am Main, in Germany, provided mezuzahs to these two gentlemen:

Back in the U.S., Project613 connected with some young professionals in Chicago and helped them settle into their new apartments:

Individual Stories:

I was surprised it was totally kosher and I feel that my home has been blessed. At last! I've waited a long time to convert to Judaism. KimBoo York, Tallahassee, FL

Loretta Kendle, Woodside, NY

Thank you for all that you do 🙏 Elan Ackerman, Dallas, TX

Michelle Bence, Scottsdale, AZ

I've been meaning to get a mezuzah but the cost was too much. Someone on Reddit posted a link to myzuzah so I went for it. Now my home is more properly Jewish and I can save up for the other doors. Thanks so much! Victor Michael Smith, Lafayette, LA
