MyZuzah Moments - May 11, 2023

On Tuesday morning, we kicked off our MyZuzah team meeting by joining the members of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation and PJ Library home office staff to help them dedicate some new mezuzahs for their office. They received a taste of our Virtual Dedication program, learning a few new tidbits about mezuzahs and our program in the process.

Partner Updates:

On Sunday, Nigerian community leader Ima Hadassa visited nearly two-dozen Jewish homes in Aba, Nigeria, putting up mezuzahs with families and community members. They made quite a celebration out of the day! Click here to watch the community expressing their thanks and congratulating themselves on this milestone, with the first ever mezuzahs in the community.

We just concluded today's visitation and fixing of the mezuzot. Baruch HaShem, Kulanu and MyZuzah have done a great job. Our homes are complete Jewish homes! –Ima Hadassa

During Passover, our partners at Chabad of Florida International University helped students prepare for the holiday and mark their homes as Jewish, using our mezuzahs:

Rabbi Aharon Mdinaradze, in Tblisi, Georgia, continues his community mezuzah project with another two homes this week:

Individual Stories:

Following our great session with the PJ Library HQ team, Aggie facilitated a lovely Virtual Dedication with two families who learned about MyZuzah through a PJ Library families Facebook page! The kids were both thrilled to see another little face on Zoom, and the parents had some great things to say about their experiences:

I feel more settled into our newish home now that we have a mezuzah up! It was nice to have the company of another MyZuzah recipient on the Zoom Call with us. Raechel Packer, Millersville, PA

This is a great program! We love that expressing our Judaism with our mezuzah is a way to stand proud of our faith in a very Christian area where there have been multiple antisemitic events. It feels almost like an act of rebellion in standing strong to our faith. We lucked out in having another family with a little one on the dedication. Corinne Char, Maplewood, MO

Ari Mor, Ocean Township, NJ

Javier Diaz, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Madison Turner, St. Louis, MO

Blair Kleiman, Miami, FL

