

MyZuzah Moments - May 31, 2024

After Passover, we launched a new feature of our database, which will help us to regularly and automatically poll all 436 distribution partners in our global network about their inventory. Hooray for automation!

Partner Updates:

Our friends at YJP New York, a young professional and leadership development group in Manhattan, put up more mezuzahs with their new members and highlighted our partnership through a neat series on their Instagram.

Also in young professional news, the ISEJ team in Buenos Aires, Argentina, shared a few dozen photos recently from their spring programming, along with some grateful messages:

Muchísimas gracias por esta oportunidad!! Muy agradecida realmente!

Muchas gracias a aquellas personas que pensaron en los jóvenes judíos y en la importancia que tiene que cada uno de ellos pueda tener su propia mezuzah en su hogar.

(Many thanks to those people who thought about young Jews and the importance of each one of them being able to have their own mezuzah in their home.)

Recipient Messages:

*I recently bought a house, and was looking for a scroll in my mezuzah, and was struggling to find one from a reputable source. I asked a rabbi and he pointed me this way. Alberto Contreras, El Paso, TX

*It is nice to have one up. I heard about it through my cantor who runs my conversion program. It feels like a Jewish home! Thomas Smith, Chicago, IL

Ashley Cowan, Charlottesville, VA

*My cousin suggested MyZuzah after contractors took off my old one and misplaced it. And now I can get one for my mother, too! Allison Metzgroff, Ossining, NY

Sara Levine Costello, of Corvallis, OR, posted on Facebook about her experience of receiving a mezuzah and putting it up through our Virtual Dedication program. It's a great way to end this week's update:

<  This makes me a happy Jew ...

Cried for most of it. We didn't have the money or the time for me to start Hebrew school when it was my turn and I've always felt robbed some how. Cheated out of a legacy that I deserved. When my daughter was born, I started getting more involved and we joined a local synagogue when we moved here a few years ago, but custody schedules always seem to come first. This is something so small in the grand scheme of things, but it feels so huge to me. So many feels, but most of all, being a happy Jew.

Had the dedication just a short while ago.
Officially a Jewish home.
