

MyZuzah Moments - November 1, 2024

On November 11, MyZuzah is teaming up with the October 7 Coalition, Alums for Campus Fairness, Heterodox Academy, and a number of on-campus student groups to host an event at Cornell University, in Ithaca, NY, to discuss various ways to combat antisemitism. Fresh off of visits to Israel and a headlining spot at the JFNA GA, our friends Patricia Heaton and John Ondrasik will be speaking to students and Ithaca-area community members about their reasons for allyship and ways that anyone can stand against hate. You are all invited to join!

Partner Updates:

A long-standing partner, MesorahDC, welcomed their young professional cohort to a dinner discussion about mezuzahs, public displays of Judaism, and Jewish values, at their downtown DC hub this week. More than 30 people attended, and they now have a backlog of mezuzah requests!

 DC Jew Crew
Emma Drew · 21h · 🌐
RSVP @ info.mesorah@gmail.com and come tomorrow to cafenite to claim your FREE mezuzah!! hope to see you all there!

Just outside Buffalo, NY, Temple Beth Tzedek presented their entire bnai mitzvah class with MyZuzah mezuzot, for a tangible reminder of all that they have learned and committed themselves to as Jewish adults.

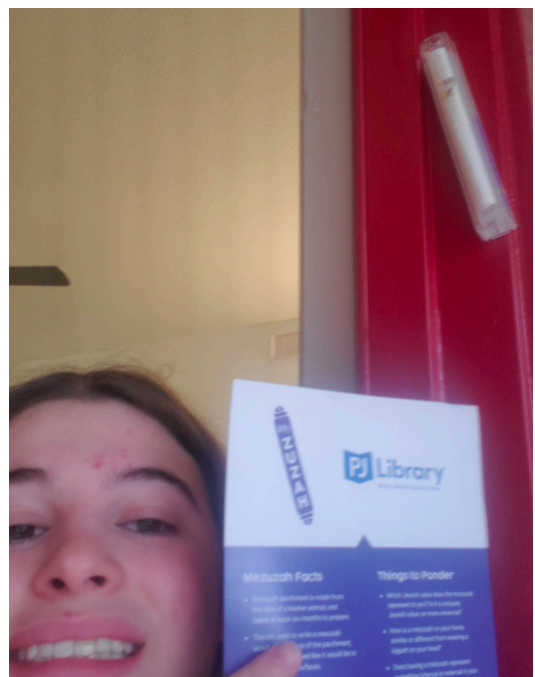

Chabat at UCLA kept the Jewish pride and learning going for their students with more mezuzahs up in the dorms:

Individual Recipient Stories:

I feel happier knowing that even though I have moved out of my parent's house I have something to keep me close to the culture and home. Emily Reichenberger, Glendale, AZ

Thank you so much for the Mezuzah. I'm extremely grateful to be Jewish and to be a part of this organization. Thank you so much for the mitzvah. Ben Maryamian, Los Angeles, CA