

MyZuzah Moments - November 22, 2024

Each of our mezuzah recipients receives three feedback surveys once their mezuzah is up – a few weeks after their Virtual Dedication, and then at the six month and one year mark, to see what the self-reported impact is over time. It took us a bit to build this automation into our database, but the first batch of responses from recent recipients is in! Here are a few notable data points and anecdotes:

What was the best part of your Virtual Dedication?

Does your mezuzah make you feel more connected to the Jewish community?

Above all, 97% of respondents recommend MyZuzah to others interested in exploring or deepening their Jewish identity!

Partner Updates:

L'dor V'dor Judaica of Georgia, an outfit that aims to rehome unused or unwanted judaica (from donations or downsizing) was spotted at Congregation Ohr Torah, in Toco Hills, just outside of Atlanta. They offer our klafim to anyone who wants to be sure the mezuzot they peruse come with a kosher klaf!

Rabbi Scott Klein, chaplain of the 82nd Airborne Division and the garrison rabbi at Fort Liberty, North Carolina, touted his partnership with MyZuzah in the work he does with Jewish soldiers in a recent Jewish Welfare Board blog post.

Stefan Hensel, Hamburg's Commissioner for Jewish Life and the Combat and Prevention of Antisemitism

(the title is shorter in German) led a delegation of German government and Jewish leaders to New York, and while we were not able to stand with them for a photo opportunity, the ten Jewish representatives and six non-Jewish allies are returning to Germany with kosher and solidarity mezuzot for their offices, taking our new initiative global.

Individual Recipient Stories:

I regularly go to synagogue, but I want to connect even more especially in light of our current challenges. Jared Miniman, Washington, DC

Schaffer Family, St. Johns, FL

Rachel Lubeck, Jupiter, FL

This is my first home. My parents were Jewish but we never put up a mezuzah in an attempt to blend in with our mostly-Baptist neighborhood. Especially with the hate in the world, it's important for us to stand up and be proud. I'm done with trying to blend in!
