

MyZuzah Moments - November 3, 2022

Our team devoted time this week to crunching numbers in order to plan for several upcoming strategy sessions, which we hope will allow us to clarify and even lay out some of the next stages of MyZuzah's development. We also put together a test run for our first program box, in preparation for what could be a new paradigm of MyZuzah programming. It's exciting to know that we're no longer just advising or running programs with partners, but providing them with tangible materials to help their own staff deliver our own well-thought through MyZuzah program experience!

And never an organization to rest on our laurels, we distributed two feedback surveys this week – one to partners in our domestic violence support program, and another to all of our Virtual Dedication participants. We look forward to learning about our longitudinal impact, and ideas to improve the recipient experience.

Partner Updates:

Rabbi Mendel Weingarten, of Chabad at the University of Washington, is among the most active of our partners on social media, using pretty much every platform to promote not only their mezuzah offerings, but the positive impact that each mezuzah has! These students' mezuzahs were highlighted on LinkedIn:

More #JewishHusky pride at the University of Washington.

By putting a mezuzah on their door, these students are increasing Jewish pride across campus.

One student told me that when she was walking in the dorm and saw a mezuzah, she stopped and took a second look.

It reminded her of her Judaism. It made her feel proud.

Am Yisroel Chai.

Over on the Iberian Peninsula, the Yehuda HaLevi team presented a mezuzah to this couple in Seville, Spain:

In Denver, CO, a young professional received his new mezuzah from our partners at Olami Denver.

Individual Messages:

I'm a kheyder teacher at my local shul, and I'm so grateful to have a mezuzah finally up! Being a college student makes it hard to afford judaica, but my home wasn't a home until it had a mezuzah! Mackenzie York, Orange Park, FL

I feel much better having a mezuzah at my house after moving away from Israel, my home country. I was blessed to have Rabbi Rapoport help me set it up and make me feel like I belong. Axelle Azoulay, Galloway, NJ
