

MyZuzah Moments - November 8, 2024

Alex took a few (much needed) breaks during the Marine Corps Marathon last Sunday in DC to run some Virtual Mezuzah Dedications. They pepped him up and helped him to press on!

Our friend Patricia Heaton spent the week in Israel, and immediately upon landing was featured on Jerusalem Dateline, a news program for the Christian world broadcasting from Israel. She talked about our partnership and solidarity mezuzah efforts.

Partner Updates:

TechTribe, Rabbi Mordechai Lightstone's outreach program to high-tech workers in New York, posted about this new mezuzah in their community:

Becca Groner and her housemates at Nashville, TN's Moishe House formally opened their home with a mezuzah:

Individual Recipient Stories:

*My dad is a 94-year-old holocaust survivor living in three concentration camps, including Bergen-Belsen. I wasn't raised in the Jewish faith. Still, since October 7th, I have felt an overwhelming pull toward acknowledging my "Jewishness" and supporting Israel and the Jewish community in any way I can. Thank you for what you are doing. Am Yisrael Chai! Lucy Mueller Wiesemann, Elmhurst, IL

*Just moved into my own place, and the mezuzah makes it complete! Hallie Gordon, St. Louis, MO

*I heard about MyZuzah from the JLIC Rabbi at John Hopkins University (Rabbi Moshe). Given that the mezuzah has been a way for Jews to mark their homes for millennia, it is exciting to have connected to that tradition and now have a reminder of my Judaism each time I enter and leave my apartment. Ezra Greenberg, Baltimore, MD

*I heard about MyZuzah from a friend on Facebook shortly after October 7. I had just finished speaking for Israel & against antisemitism and expressed a desire to have a mezuzah but am on disability so low on funds. This was the only way I could afford one. Thank you. Ruti Klassert, Corvallis, OR
