

MyZuzah Moments - October 14, 2022

Our mezuzahs traveled a mere 37,569 miles in September, as we exhausted our supplies early in the month – but as noted last week, we worked ourselves into a frenzy right after Yom Kippur to dispatch nearly 200 mezuzahs in one day. Many more are waiting to be shipped next week!

Even though we've been offline for sukkot, some new partners have been knocking at our door. Rabbi Irv Elson, of the Jewish Welfare Board's Jewish Chaplains Council, encouraged new chaplains and Jewish lay leaders to connect with MyZuzah and assist their local Jewish servicemen, servicewomen, and their families obtain mezuzahs. Just since last week, we've heard from representatives of the Coast Guard, Navy, and Veterans Administration!

Partner Updates:

Our partners of Jewish La Paz in La Paz, Mexico, shared a mezuzah with these American ex-pats in their new homes in Mexico:

Chabad UCLA sent in more pictures of students in Los Angeles, proudly displaying their mezuzahs. Even though some campuses have recently experienced vandalism targeting mezuzahs, our partners are still full steam ahead!

Individual recipient photos:

Not to judge a book by its cover, but this lovely recipient in Manchester, NH submitted her picture with the email hippiewiccan@gmail.com. MyZuzah certainly supports all types of Jews!

It was great to be able to have my son put it up with me! Alessa Nicholson, Cleveland Heights, OH

Yonah Shafner, Austin, TX

I found MyZuzah online and I've never had a mezuzah before due to growing up secular. It's really special to me because it's a sign to everyone and myself how important my Judaism is. Chava Tempesco, Richmond, VA
